DESIGNS HOMES THAT REFLECT
THE PERFECT BALANCE OF BEAUTY AND FUNCTION

Stephanie Larsen

As an award-winning interior designer, Stephanie Larsen has built her career designing homes that reflect the perfect balance of beauty and function.

She has been recognized for her innovative approach and extensive product knowledge by her diverse clientele for over 20 years. Her style is sophisticated and timeless, with a personal signature that creates an instantly distinguishable look.

Stephanie's interiors feature an array of extraordinary materials and textures tempered with subtle color palettes and impeccable lighting. She continues to enhance her expertise via manufacturer workshops and affiliation with the American Society of Interior Designers (ASID).

"Good design is tailored for people's lives. We all love beautiful things—humans have a need for balance, beauty and harmony in our living spaces. But it must be comfortable and functional to remain well designed."
